About the STI Support Center

The DTRIAC has long provided threat reduction information to DTRA. The Agency recognized the need for on-site research and editing support and created the STI Support Center. We are located in the DTRC to conduct research, obtain reports, assist with program management, and provide editorial assistance.

Ask a Librarian

A DTRIAC librarian is on-site to help with all your research questions.

- Liaison with DTRIAC / DTRA subject matter experts
- Expertise with DoD/military resources
- In-depth searching of sci/tech literature
- Proficient with document retrieval
- Commercial database searching

Program Support

The DoD requires that a comprehensive literature survey be conducted before project start-up to eliminate duplication of effort.

We can conduct a search of all relevant databases to ensure that you are spending valuable research dollars wisely.

We ensure that the results of your project/work effort are reported to DTIC to benefit the entire DoD Community.

Professional Results

Our on-site editors will ensure Technical Report (TR) submissions to DTRIAC and to DTIC adhere to DTRA Standards.

- Standard formatting
- Correct distribution statements
- Properly archived
- Coordinated dissemination and distribution
- Ensure TR contract deliverable close out

Digitized final technical reports may be e-mailed to DTRA-DTRIAC@mail.mil or mailed to DTRA/DTRIAC at 1680 Texas St. SE, Kirtland AFB, NM 87117-5669.

RESEARCH

Report Results to PM

Iterate Searches as necessary per PM

Report Research Results to the Defense Technical Information Center

REPORT

The draft report is submitted to Tech Editing team for standardization and processing, then to PM for technical review.

Tech Editors coordinate distribution list with PM, verify data and coordinate publication.

Copies are provided to DTRIAC and DTIC for further dissemination.
