

Mr. Henry L. Bass

Director, Equal Employment Opportunity Office (EEO)

Mr. Henry L. Bass serves as the Director of Equal Employment Opportunity Office (EEO) and the Disputes and Resolution Program Manager for the Defense Threat Reduction Agency (DTRA). In his current role, he proactively addresses workplace issues, disputes, process EEO complaints, advises and assists the Agency's Director, Senior Leaders, Managers and Employees in carrying out Agency responsibilities as they relate to Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended; along with Enforcement, Guidance's, Executive Orders, DoD Instructions, and Directives.

Mr. Bass previous assignments include Military Sealift Command as Interim Deputy Director and EEO Complaints Manager; Naval Surface Force, Atlantic as EEO Program Manager/Civilian Workforce Development; Naval Special Warfare Group FOUR as N1 Chief of Manpower and Joint Enabling Capabilities Command as Deputy, J1 Manpower, Personnel and Administrative Directorate.

Henry Bass, a native of Valdosta, Georgia, served in the U.S. Navy for twenty-four years, retiring as a Chief Petty Officer prior to his entry into civilian government service in January 2013.

Henry holds a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Human Resource Management; Department of the Navy Certified Mediator.