

LTC LaTisha W. Phillips

Chief, Legislative Affairs

LTC LaTisha Phillips is a native of University Park, Illinois. LaTisha graduated from New Mexico State University with a degree in Criminal Justice and was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in the Military Intelligence Corps in 1997.

Upon graduation from New Mexico State University her first assignment was with the 751st Military Intelligence Battalion, 501st Military Intelligence Brigade where she served as a Battalion S2, MP Platoon Leader and Company Executive Officer. Upon completion of her assignment, she was assigned to the National Ground Intelligence Center at the Washington DC Navy Yard where she served as a Company Executive Officer and an Army Departmental Requirements Officer (DRO). After attending the Military Intelligence Officer Advanced Course, she was assigned to the 1st Cavalry Division where she served as an Assistant Brigade S2, Company Commander of the Military Intelligence Company (MICO) and Assistant S3 Planner for the 2nd Brigade Combat Team during two deployments in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom.

After redeployment, she attended graduate school at the University of Illinois at Chicago and was then reassigned to Fort Hood where she served as the Brigade S2 for the 4th Sustainment Brigade where she deployed again in support of Operation New Dawn. Her next assignment was to Arifjan Kuwait where she served as the Battalion Executive Officer of the Base Support Battalion for Area Support Group- Kuwait. Upon completion of her assignment to Kuwait she returned to the Washington DC area to serve as the Collection and Integration Division Chief for the National Geospatial Intelligence Agency, Executive Officer to the Director of the Army SHARP office at the Pentagon and she also served as a Legislative Liaison for the Office of the Chief of Army Legislative Liaison.

LTC Phillips education includes a Bachelors of Arts in Criminal Justice from New Mexico State University (1997) and a Master's Degree in Urban Planning and Policy from the University of Illinois at Chicago (2009). Her military education includes the Military Intelligence Basic Course, Military Intelligence Advanced Course, Combined Arms Services Staff School, and Army Command and General Staff College (ILE).

LTC Phillips awards and decorations include the Bronze star Medal (1OLC), Defense Meritorious Service Medal (DMSM), Meritorious Service Medal (6OLC), Army Commendation Medal (1OLC). She is also authorized to wear the Meritorious Unit Commendation (1OLC).

She is married to MAJ Marvin L. Phillips of Mobile, Alabama and they have two children.