EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Part E.1 - Executive Summary: Mission

AGENCY MISSION

The Defense Threat Reduction Agency (DTRA) enables DoD, the U.S. Government (USG), and International Partners to counter and deter weapons of mass destruction (WMD) and improvised threat networks. As a Combat Support Agency, DTRA's expertise and global perspective uniquely posture us to provide rapid solutions to Combatant Command mission requirements, ensuring our programs, expertise, and capabilities are aligned to warfighter needs. DTRA's analysts, planners, scientists, and program managers work with the interagency to anticipate, illuminate, and proactively disrupt threat networks using our wide range of capabilities. DTRA conducts network analysis to identify critical links and nodes between people, places, and things. DTRA maintains global situational awareness of countering WMD and improvised threat networks and facilitates information sharing across communities of action. DTRA applies tools such as Building Partnership Capacity and Cooperative Threat Reduction to strengthen and expand international partnerships and drive interagency and partner nation actions to counter malign foreign influence. DTRA delivers both offensive and defensive capabilities to enable combatant commanders to counter adversaries' warfare competencies, disruptive technologies, and emergent trends. DTRA enables the national nuclear posture to counter adversaries across three levels of conflict: competition below armed conflict, conventional armed conflict, and nuclear armed conflict. DTRA enables the credibility of our nuclear forces through training the joint force, conducting mission assurance assessments, and exercising nuclear survivability. Enabling a safe, secure, and reliable nuclear deterrent impacts the calculus of competitor threat networks and the nuclear intentions and capabilities of near-peer nations, their proxy networks, aspiring rogue states, or and non-state actors. Collectively these key elements enable DTRA to support U.S. and partners' efforts to compete below the threshold of armed conflict in addressing National Defense Strategy adversaries in an era of Great Power Competition.

DTRA is organized into nine Directorates (Joint Improvised-Threat Defeat Directorate (JD), Research and Development Directorate (RD), Combat Support Directorate (CZ), On-Site Inspection and Building Capacity Directorate (OB), Nuclear Enterprise Directorate (NE), Cooperative Threat Reduction Directorate (CT), Acquisition, Contracts, and Logistics Directorate (AL), Information Integration and Technology Services Directorate (IT), Human Resources Directorate (HR) and its supporting Staff Offices. DTRA's Headquarters is located at Fort Belvoir, Virginia. The Agency also has Regional Offices located throughout various geographical locations.

Part E.2 - Executive Summary: Essential Element A - F

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY & DIVERSITY PROGRAMS OFFICE MISSION

The Equal Opportunity and Diversity Programs Office's (EO) mission is to create and sustain an inclusive work environment that aligns with DTRA's mission.

Our Strategic Goals and Objectives are to:

Goal 1: Improve focus beyond compliance

- Integrate EEO into the workforce
- Improve program execution and customer service

Goal 2: Leverage and expand collaboration with internal and external partners.

- Establish new relationships, to include non-traditional partners
- Enhance effectiveness of internal relationships

Goal 3: Facilitate Innovation

- Become a catalyst for change
- Encourage leaders to support innovation and creativity

Goal 4: Educate and advise DTRA Leadership and staff

- Create a shared understanding of how EEO contributes to DTRA Mission
- Provide tailored consultative supportive services

EO serves as advisors for employees, managers, and supervisors seeking information on, or dealing with the following program activities: Affirmative Employment; Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR); Complaints and Compliance (C&C); Diversity and Inclusion (D&I); Federal Employee Viewpoint Survey (FEVS), Anti-Harassment Program (AHP), Special Emphasis Programs (SEP), EEO/EO Training; Sexual Assault Prevention and Response (SAPR), and Disability. The current staff consists of an EO Director, two EEO Managers, and five EEO specialists.

SIX ESSENTIAL ELEMENTS ACCOMPLISHMENTS

The following six essential elements below are a Model Equal Employment Opportunity Program, to include the Agency's noteworthy accomplishments in Fiscal Year 2018 (FY18). During FY18, DTRA addressed initiatives toward program deficiencies reported from prior years to achieving a model EEO program.

Essential Element A:

DEMONSTRATED COMMITMENT FROM AGENCY LEADERSHIP

Leadership is instrumental in ensuring viable and effective equal employment opportunity programs. The Director, Deputy Director, Vice Directors, and Senior Officials support Equal Opportunity and Diversity programs. Seven Agency-wide EEO Policy Statements were signed and distributed to new employees during the Newcomer's Orientation session (Civilian Equal Employment Opportunity, Diversity and Inclusion, Employment and Advancement of Individuals with Disabilities, Harassment in the Workplace, Military Equal Opportunity, Prevention of Sexual Harassment, and Sexual Assault Prevention and Response)(Appendix C). This information is also available for employees on our Intranet, the DTRA/ Portal.

Mentoring Program: The Agency Mentoring Program continued to be the DoD model. With a high level of enthusiasm from mentors and mentees, the FY18 program consisted of 92 civilian employees with 8 Senior Executive Service (SES) serving as Mentors. DTRA Senior Leaders were committed to supporting the program by serving as mentors and/or attending key activities. One example is the "Knowledge Sharing Through Speed Mentoring" event, whereby senior leaders participate in an open discussion sharing their expertise and experiences in an informal and relaxed environment. The senior leaders also hosted thirteen brown bags, centered on the featured book "Leaders Eat Last," by Simon Sinek. HR hosted a workshop, "Leading Across Generations," to explore ways to positively leverage the differences among generations, incorporating relevant points from the featured book. The DTRA Director showed his support by inviting mentees to attend a senior-level staff meeting and met with participants on a regular basis to provide mission updates and give them the opportunity to ask questions in a casual setting, all of which helped participants gain a sense of connection to DTRA.

Leadership Development Program (LDP): In FY18, DTRA's senior leaders were provided funds for general leadership training, enabling them to take ownership and manage their organization's leadership development needs. The centralized LDP competitive programs complement the general leadership development training. The LDP competitive programs supported 41 civilian employee participants, with a 100% success rate. Participants undergo a rigorous application and vetting process before being selected for the competitive programs. Applicants obtain supervisor and executive leader endorsements for their application. DTRA's Leadership Development Council (LDC) are representatives from each of the DTRA Directorates as well as an advisor from the EO Office. The council reviews, rates, and ranks application packages based on standardized evaluation criteria. The top candidates identified are then interviewed with a panel of senior executive leaders. Candidates who are not selected have the option to engage with the LDC or an interview panel representative for feedback on their application. This process provides the opportunity for DTRA's senior leaders to invest and engage directly in the future corporate leadership of DTRA. It also provides candidates with the opportunity to directly engage with senior leaders; learning from their experiences and breaking down barriers to senior leader engagement.

Federal Employee Viewpoint Survey (FEVS): Management and oversight of the Federal Employee Viewpoint Survey (FEVS) transitioned from the HR Directorate to the EO office. EO quickly began reviewing and analyzing the FY18 results and engaged with DTRA senior leaders and Directorates to communicate the Agency's recent survey results. The results indicated a participation success rate of 45.9%. This result demonstrates a desired commitment from our workforce to improve the Agency. The DTRA strengths, according to the FEVS, include support for work/life programs, support for employee development, and success at accomplishing the mission. Our challenges include, but are not limited to, opportunity for advancement/promotions and pay raises within the organization. The DTRA Director applauded the workforce for their hard work and commitment in improving and fulfilling the Agency's mission and values.

Essential Element B:

INTEGRATION OF EEO INTO THE AGENCY'S STRATEGIC MISSION

Minority Serving Institutions: In FY18, the Office of the Director established a DTRA Internship for Diversity (DID) at Pacific Northwest National Laboratory (PNNL). This internship program targets undergraduate students at Minority Serving Institutions (MSI) who are excited to tackle hard problems countering and deterring weapons of mass destruction and improvised threats networks. DID is an 8-12 week summer internship which exposes undergraduate students to initiatives that are important to the Agency. Additionally, through this program, PNNL will engage with MSI/Universities to promote, not only the DID, but also opportunities at DTRA as they become available. This supports DTRA's overall mission to recruit diverse talent (with expertise) to make our nation safer and stronger.

EO Director Involvement: The EO Director continued to build relationships with Senior Leaders on strategies which promote an environment free from personal, social, or institutional barriers that prevent employees from rising to their highest potential. The EO Director attended weekly Director's staff meetings and continued to participate in various forums throughout the Agency, e.g., the Director's Intelligence Brief (DIB) and the Human Resources Policy Board (HRPB), creating a more engaged working relationship with senior leaders. EO briefed at the Director's All Hands and provided training (i.e., Sexual Harassment) for specific offices as needed. The Agency continued to provide funding to ensure compliance on EEO programs such as Special Emphasis, Diversity and Inclusion, Sign Language Interpreters (SLI), staff training, and contracts for Investigations and Court Reporting services.

Section 508: The IT Directorate continues to support the Reasonable Accommodations (RA) Program with their IT support requests, to include purchasing a video phone for individuals when the Computer/Electronic Accommodations Program (CAP) office exhausted its funding in FY18. The IT department manages the Agency's internal Section 508 site on a situational basis to ensure 508 information and resources are readily available for DTRA personnel. Internal sites, training materials, videos are periodically reviewed to ensure 508 compliance. IT also met with Microsoft on their Artificial Intelligence (AI) initiatives to discover how to leverage assistance with 508 initiatives. The 508 Program Manager was asked to sponsor a proposal where Agency employees can participate in the Federal IT Leaders Group, a project to automate the process for scanning internal Web/SharePoint sites for 508 compliance. In addition, IT outsourced videos of interest to the DTRA community to be closed captioned. The Agency is also researching avenues to develop an in-house capability and begun discussions with Defense Logistics Agency (DLA) to utilize their closed captioning resources for internally produced videos.

Historically Black Colleges & Universities/Minority Serving Institutions (HBCUs/MSIs): The RD Directorate, Chemical Biological Technologies Department (RD-CB) conducted two HBCU/MSI workshops that delivered information pertaining to research opportunities. The RD Test Science and Technology Department (RD-TST) and Diagnostics Division (RD-TSD) participated in the Discovery Festival in Albuquerque, NM in November 2018. The Discovery Festival was a free, one-day event where over 3,500 kids (K-12), from New Mexico (37 schools) explored careers in Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, and Mathematical (STEAM) fields in an exciting, hands-on experience. DTRA's exhibit included representatives from RD-CB and RD-TS and the Agency won the "Best Hands-on Demo" Award. The Chief of Scientist and Innovation Department (RD-ST) kicked off a Post-Doctoral Scholars program with the National Strategic Research Institute (NSRI). This program teaches highly technical post-doctorate scholars the skills of a Government program manager. In FY18, RD-ST began planning to transition the Agency's basic research program toward a University Partnership model; plans included a University Day in early 2019 to outreach to the community, encourage and facilitate the inclusion of HBCU/MSI members into the partnership. A principal goal for this model is future workforce development in critical scientific fields relevant to CWMD.

Essential Element C:

MANAGEMENT AND PROGRAM ACCOUNTABILITY

Disabled Veterans Affirmative Action Program (DVAAP): The report was submitted on October 28, 2018, to the Defense Civilian Personnel Advisory Service. The following accomplishments were highlighted in the report:

- 30% or more Disabilities: Progress is made each year for hiring disabled veterans with 30% or more disabilities. There were 80 Veterans hired in FY18, of which 39 were identified as 30% or more disabled.
- Special Hiring Authorities: Continued to educate selecting officials and hiring managers during strategic conversations on Schedule A and other special hiring authorities in support of recruitment efforts.
 - Used USAJOBS.gov for all external and internal competitive vacancy announcements which included information on special hiring authorities for recruitment and selection of disabled veterans. Specific hiring initiatives for the employment of disabled veterans include the Veteran's Recruitment Authority and Wounded Warrior Program.
 - Maintained an internal database of Schedule A applicants, disabled veterans applying for positions with the Agency, and ongoing outreach to find highly qualified veterans with disabilities.
- Reasonable Accommodation (RA): Ensured RA and work-life information was available to Individuals with Targeted Disabilities (IwTD) and disabled veteran applicants upon initial employment.
- Sign Language Interpreter (SLI): Ensured SLI services were available to the workforce for meetings, conferences, training and special events. EO office received and submitted 281 SLI requests.
- Job Accommodation Network (JAN): Provided expert accommodation information before, during, and after the recruitment process. JAN is a confidential service that allows a manager or employee an opportunity to receive individualized information on an accommodation issue.
- CAP: A centrally funded program that provided Assistive Technology (AT) for RA, Individuals with Disabilities (IwDs), and disabled veterans.

Federal Equal Opportunity Recruitment Program (FEORP): The EO Office and HR Directorate collaborated on the FEORP submission in November 2018. The report included the Agency's promising practices, strategies, and activities related to Hiring Authorities, Hispanic Employment, Mentoring, Training, Career Development, and Recruitment of Individuals with Disabilities. The following accomplishments were highlighted.

- Diversify DTRA's Workforce through Active Recruitment: The HR Directorate developed and implemented broad outreach strategies to attract leaders from a diverse applicant pool which are consistent with merit system principles. Utilized various special hiring authorities as supplements to the competitive hiring processes and partnered with diverse organizations and institutions to help recruit from all segments of society.
- Special Hiring Authorities: The Agency hired three Workforce Recruitment Program (WRP) students and five Schedule A interns throughout the Agency and at various geographical locations. HR coordinated recruitment opportunities to a broad range of individuals by attending veteran and minority-supported career fairs and sought partnerships with organizations that provided diverse and qualified applicants.

- Training: EO hosted four Civil Treatment Training Sessions targeting supervisors, managers, and the workforce in the National Capital Region (NCR), Kirtland AFB, New Mexico, and other geographic locations with a total of 80 attendees. The Civil Treatment Training focused on workplace behaviors and the fair treatment of individuals in the work place.

Disability Employment Initiatives: In FY18, the following accomplishments were highlighted.

- Processed 18 RA requests, which included a combination of assistive technologies, sit/stand workstations, chairs, keyboards, flexible work schedules, and medical telework. The IT Directorate and Building Manager approved the following accommodations: three sit/stand workstations, three heaters, and one ergonomic chair.
- Implemented a Policy Statement on Employment and Advancement of IwDs.
- Maintained Sign Language Interpreter (SLI) tracking log and kept track of expenditures.
- Served as advisor and participated in Section 508 Accessibility Team meetings.
- Provided guidance to the Emergency Plan Team concerning evacuation procedures.

Special Emphasis Program Events: The EO Offices within the McNamara Complex including DTRA, DLA, Defense Contract Audit Agency (DCAA), and the Defense Technical Information Center (DTIC) co-sponsored 11 Special Emphasis Program events to educate and inform the workforce. DTRA sponsored the following two events:

- National Disability Employment Awareness Month: The theme was “America’s Workforce: Empowering All.” The guest speaker was George Dennehy. Mr. Dennehy shared with the audience his life experiences growing up without arms and how he learned to play guitar with his feet. He spoke of his personal struggles in a Romanian orphanage and his adoption at the age of one by his U.S. family. He shared that every individual has a purpose and absolutely anything is possible.
- National Hispanic Heritage Month: The theme was “One Endless Voice to Enhance Our Traditions.” The guest speaker was Mr. Luis E. Borunda, Maryland Deputy Secretary of State. Mr. Borunda began his career in politics by forming a Hispanic committee to support the successful candidacy program. He shared his successful career, leadership style, and spoke of his life as a Hispanic.

Essential Element D:

PROACTIVE PREVENTION OF UNLAWFUL DISCRIMINATION

Anti-Harassment Program: In FY18, the EO Office established its Proactive Prevention Team to develop the Agency’s Anti-Harassment Program (AHP). The AHP operates independently from the EEO Complaint Process (29 C.F.R. §1614). The team engaged with Managers and Supervisors for the purpose of conducting fact-findings allegations of harassment and to prohibit harassment by or of any employee, supervisor, manager, and contractor. The purpose of the Agency’s AHP is to support the commitment to maintain a work environment free from harassment and provide training for the Agency workforce. The AHP Procedures was revised to promptly and effectively address allegations of workplace harassment within the DTRA workforce.

EEO Training: In FY18, EO proactively engaged in various training efforts such as mandatory Notification and Federal Employee Anti-Discrimination and Retaliation Act (No FEAR). There were 776 employees who received No FEAR training. 883 employees took the online Prevention of Sexual Harassment training. Nearly 543 participants received EEO classroom training, 144 SAPR and 80 managers and supervisors received Civil Treatment training. EO continues to train new managers and supervisors to address challenges they may encounter and provided the knowledge, skills, and tools necessary to successfully manage a diverse workforce.

Inspector General (IG) Office: In FY18, IG assisted employees with allegations of possible climate, diversity, or discrimination concerns and held discussions with EO to address related cases. IG received 142 contacts, of which, 26 were EO-related issues or concerns. The Agency Director approved the completion of a Special Assessment that involved EO and climate concerns. In addition, IG instituted monthly “Blotter” updates for the Director and respective Directorate leaders where IG-related activities were addressed to included matters involving climate, diversity, and/or discrimination. IG also conducted monthly meetings with EO, General Counsel (GC), Vice Director for Plans and Programs, Security and Counterintelligence Department (PP-SC), and HR to review personnel concerns that potentially contained an EO nexus and met to ensure there was a process to elevate internal investigations to DTRA Leadership.

Essential Element E: EFFICIENCY

Complaints & Compliance: In FY18, EO worked diligently to increase the level of efficiencies in its operations, with focus placed not only on complaints, compliance, and legal requirements, but on proactive prevention. EEO training was deployed, which focused on areas the Commission requires the Agency to address with the workforce, (e.g., educating the workforce on complaint process procedures, Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR), educating supervisors on their role and responsibilities as supervisors, and employees on their rights and responsibilities in the workplace).

IComplaints Data Base Tracking System: The Agency has procured the MicroPact Complaints Tracking System (iComplaints). This system is entirely web based. Once complaint data is entered into the system, it will provide the necessary capability to collect, track, manage, process, and generate reports for all DTRA complaints. The complaint information entered into the system (organizations, status, claims, issues, etc.) is stored on a Central DTRA system and not on individual PC hard drive.

In FY18, the EO office handled 61 complaints. Thirty-three informal complaints were filed during this reporting period. Eleven individuals either withdrew or did not file formal; four complaints were settled by an informal settlement agreement. Twenty individuals filed formal complaints of discrimination. DTRA received a remand from Department of Army; increasing the number of formal complaints to 21.

Out of the 21 formal complaints, 4 complaints were closed, 1 was settled by a Negotiated Settlement Agreement (NSA), and the other 3 were dismissed in accordance with 29 C.F.R. 1614.107, bringing the remainder of complaints filed in FY18 to 17. (See Figure 1)

The top five bases cited this reporting period were sex (24%), age (22%), reprisal (17%), race (17%), and color (8%). Sex and age were cited most often. Reprisal and race were tied. Sex remained the same as it was in FY17. Age as a basis increased because it was not cited in FY17. (See Figure 2)

In FY18, the top three frequently used issues by complainants were (1) harassment (non-sexual and sexual) which was cited 16 times, (one complainant cited both sexual and non-sexual harassment) (2) disciplinary actions, cited six times, and (3) reassignment, cited four times.

In FY17, there were 21 allegations of harassment (20 were non-sexual and 2 were sexual). There was a decrease in allegations in both sexual and non-sexual harassment in FY18. Normally, if there are allegations of harassment, reprisal would also be cited; Even though there was 50% increase in reprisal this fiscal year, it was not raised as many times in the cases that alleged harassment. This could be an anomaly or it could be that there were incidents that were not articulated or identified. Termination, awards, appraisal, telework, and reasonable accommodation were all cited at one time. Disability (mental and physical), and non-selection/non-promotion were cited two times in this reporting period.

The Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Coordinator and Complaints Manager were designated as advisors for ADR. Both were responsible for educating the workforce on the use of ADR, the purpose and process of ADR and the ability to use ADR at any stage of the complaint process. EO continues to incorporate an explanation of ADR and its benefits into EO related materials, notices and training in order to raise awareness. In FY18, we increased our efforts in offering ADR to the workforce. The lack or ineffective marketing of this product is most likely the cause. Employees and leaders are usually not interested in putting in the time, if they do not understand the benefits. In FY18, EO did a better job at promoting ADR and the usefulness of the tool.

In FY18, the EO made a concerted effort to offer ADR at the informal and formal stage. Zero mediations were conducted in FY17. In FY18, 10 mediations were conducted and 5 were settled. In FY19, EO will increase marketing and promotion by building a campaign around why ADR is a business necessity.

Essential Element F: RESPONSIVENESS AND LEGAL COMPLIANCE

EO fully complied with all laws, including EEOC regulations, Orders, Decisions, and Settlement Agreements. The EO Director and Complaints Manager met with the Agency's Employment Law Attorney (GC) on matters of mutual interest and each sought the advice of each other's expertise when dealing with unique situations. Because of this effective collaboration between EO and GC, all documents requiring legal sufficiency reviews were reviewed and sent forward. There is a firewall in the GC Office to ensure the Counsel consulted to assist EO with Acceptance and Dismissal letters is separate from the EO litigation Counsel.

EO ensured compliance with EEOC Administrative Judges and/or Office of Federal Operations Decisions. The Agency's Settlement Agreement process ensured timely compliance with all terms and conditions of such Agreements to include an appropriate clause regarding breaches and/or other non-compliance. In cases where there was a lapse in timeframes the agency demonstrated a concerted effort to comply.

Formal Complaints: EO continues to promote how Leadership's early involvement with conflict resolution allows creative solutions for resolving workplace disputes quickly, efficiently, and at a substantial monetary savings, especially if resolution is achieved prior to litigation. ADR was utilized this FY in both the informal or formal arena and the savings to the Agency revealed less time and resources than pursuing the adjudicative processes. (See Figure 3)

COMPLAINT PROCESSING EXPENSE FY18
INVESTIGATIONS	MEDIATIONS	FADS	Court Reporting
$86,059.00	$6,547.50	$5,700.00	$1,952.32
TOTAL EXPENSE			$100,258.82

There were 11 complaints closed in FY18; 1 formal settlement, 5 final Agency Actions, 4 Final Agency Decisions, and 1 Final Agency Order with an Administrative Judge. There were two formal complaints that were pending investigation at the end of the reporting period. DTRA received a remand from Department of Army, and there were complaints, which should have been processed in the previous FYs, that contributed to the substantial increase of formal complaints in FY18. EO did not meet EEOC's required time lines in the processing of our complaints. For the Agency to improve on meeting these requirements, there is a need to overhaul the complaints and compliance program to improve efficiencies in processing complaints. Ensuring a strong informal process is the foundation in which to keep the process on track. Once we build a solid foundation, only then can we achieve an efficient and compliant EEO complaints process. To include, moving Final Agency Decision and Final Agency Orders to meet the 40 calendar day requirement. Improving on our services to employees using the complaints process and the aggressive use of mediation as an avenue of redress could possibly lead to quicker resolutions of complaints. To improve these services, moving from a compliance metric to a performance metric would better serve us in eliminating deficiencies realized in FY18.

WORKFORCE DATA HIGHLIGHTS: DTRA’s workforce analysis provides information regarding the current composition and trends impacting the workforce. The U.S. Census Bureau 2010 Civilian Labor Force (CLF) census data was used as a benchmark.

At the end of FY18, the total workforce (permanent and temporary) was comprised of 1,365 civilians spanning 14 locations worldwide. The total population increased from 1,340 to 1,365 representing a positive net change of 25 (1.87%). The overall workforce consists of 894 (65.49%) Males and 471(34.51%) Females. This is an increase of 1.08% for Male and a decrease of 1.08% for Female representation. [According to the 2010 Civilian Labor Force (CLF), the percentage of Males is 51.84% and Females is 48.14%]. The population of Females has steadily declined since 2012.

In FY19, the Agency will establish Employee Resource Groups (ERGs) to continue to examine employment-related issues and to further enhance the Agency's current activities to attract, develop and engage DTRA's employees.

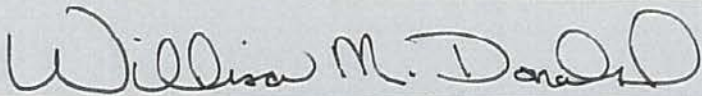

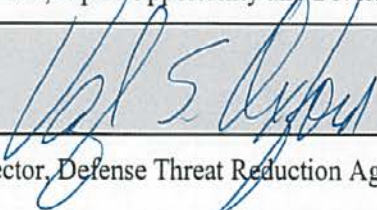

PART J Summary: IwDs recruitment and retention remains an area requiring continued improvement to increase the hiring of IwDs. The Agency reviewed its IwDs action plan. This action plan addresses potential barriers and determines how to increase the agency's efforts to recruit, hire, and retain IwDs. In collaboration with HR, EO is making concerted efforts to increase the number and percentages of employees hired with severe/targeted disabilities and fully accommodate them to ensure that they have opportunities for career development and promotions.

CONCLUSION: Although the Agency has made progress, the vision of a workforce in which Women, Hispanics, and IwDs are fully represented and utilized has not been wholly achieved. DTRA will continue to sustain efforts to recruit highly-qualified Women, Hispanics, and other minorities. The focus is on: increasing employee engagement and retention and enhancing employee development programs. Moreover, the Agency remains agile in engaging all employees and managers to explore methods to enhance DTRA as a model Agency.

Report of Accomplishments

Fiscal Year	Accomplishments
2018	SEPM: In FY18, EO Offices within the complex partnered and co-sponsored 11 SEP events. DTRA sponsored the National Disability Employment Awareness Month and (approximately 95 employees were in attendance) and the National Hispanic Heritage Month (approximately 50 employees were in attendance). EO will continue to monitor the impact of these events in FY19. AHP: The AHP was recently established to maintain a harassment free work environment and to provide awareness to the Agency workforce. To date, the team has drafted the AHP instruction which is pending approval. Dashboards and Reports: In FY18, EO continued to collaborate with HR and the Information Integration and Technology Services (IT) Directorate to upgrade of the internal EEO Dashboard (Business Intelligence Solution). The Dashboard was reconfigured to include the new EEOC requirement for MD-715 Data tables. Specifically, the B tables were significantly impacted by the format change requesting different categories of information. The A tables continues to support EEOC's current dashboard format but the B tables will be calculated, and populated manually for the FY18 submission. During FY19, EO, HR, and IT will continue to work on data collection, calculation, and formatting to fulfill the needs of the newly formatted data tables from EEOC. Data Management/Automation: The current data management/automation process works for the previous format of the MD-715 data tables. However, improvements can be made on the loading of the data. HR, and IT are in the process of taking the two independent data collection efforts and ensure both efforts can be met through a single, more comprehensive data collection effort. This will reduce the time and effort it takes to load both sources as well as focus all data cleansing activities to ensure the source data reflects what has actually occurred on a monthly basis.

PART J

Individuals with Targeted Disabilities

MD-715 – Part J

Special Program Plan for the Recruitment, Hiring, Advancement, and Retention of Persons with Disabilities

To capture agencies' affirmative action plan for persons with disabilities (PWD) and persons with targeted disabilities (PWTD), EEOC regulations (29 C.F.R. § 1614.203(e)) and MD-715 require agencies to describe how their plan will improve the recruitment, hiring, advancement, and retention of applicants and employees with disabilities. All agencies, regardless of size, must complete this Part of the MD-715 report.

Section I: Efforts to Reach Regulatory Goals

EEOC regulations (29 C.F.R. § 1614.203(d)(7)) require agencies to establish specific numerical goals for increasing the participation of persons with reportable and targeted disabilities in the federal government.

1. Using the goal of 12% as the benchmark, does your agency have a trigger involving PWD by grade level cluster in the permanent workforce? If “yes”, describe the trigger(s) in the text box.

- | | | |
|--------------------------------|--------------|-------------|
| a. Cluster GS-1 to GS-10 (PWD) | Yes X | No |
| b. Cluster GS-11 to SES (PWD) | Yes | No X |

The percentage of PWDs in the GS-1 to GS 10 cluster was 0.95% (13) for FY18, which falls below the goal of 12%

The percentage of PWDs in the GS-11 to SES cluster was 12.16.% (166) in FY18, which is above the goal of 12%

The overall PWDs percentage is 13.11% (179).

Using the goal of 2% as the benchmark, does your agency have a trigger involving PWTD by grade level cluster in the permanent workforce? If “yes”, describe the trigger(s) in the text box.

- | | | |
|---------------------------------|--------------|----|
| a. Cluster GS-1 to GS-10 (PWTD) | Yes X | No |
| b. Cluster GS-11 to SES (PWTD) | Yes X | No |

The percentage of PWTDs in the GS-1 to 10 cluster was 0.146% (2) in FY18, which is below the goal of 2%.

The percentage of PWTDs in the GS-11 to SES cluster was 1.098% (15) in FY18, which is below the goal of 2%.

The overall PWTDs percentage is 1.245% (17).

Describe how the agency has communicated the numerical goals to the hiring managers and/or recruiters.

DTRA's participation rate has increased from FY17 0.82% (11) for PWTDs. The Agency hired five PWTDs in FY18 increasing our percentage to 1.245% (17). In addition, 12 PWDs were hired in FY18. The Agency continues to promote special hiring authorities by educating hiring officials and hiring managers.

Section II: Model Disability Program

Pursuant to 29 C.F.R. §1614.203(d)(1), agencies must ensure sufficient staff, training and resources to recruit and hire persons with disabilities and persons with targeted disabilities, administer the reasonable accommodation program and special emphasis program, and oversee any other disability hiring and advancement program the agency has in place.

Section III: Plan to Recruit and Hire Individuals with Disabilities

Pursuant to 29 C.F.R. § 1614.203(d)(1)(i) and (ii), agencies must establish a plan to increase the recruitment and hiring of individuals with disabilities. The questions below are designed to identify outcomes of the agency’s recruitment program plan for PWD and PWTD.

PLAN TO IDENTIFY JOB APPLICANTS WITH DISABILITIES

Describe the programs and resources the agency uses to identify job applicants with disabilities, including individuals with targeted disabilities.

Workforce Recruitment Program is a DOL/DoD recruitment initiative which helps DTRA identify qualified students with disabilities for summer employment and potentially provide the opportunity to retain the students by offering permanent positions.

PLAN:

- Marketing efforts through flyers, postcards, and digital signage to increase awareness and participation; bring on board at least 14 interns for FY19 and offer interns permanent positions using Schedule A hiring authority.
- Partner with HR to ensure processes and WRP Action Plan is adhered to.
- Host at least two sessions to kick-off the WRP to educate managers and provide awareness on the hiring process.
- Create WRP Blog and submit article in HR Connection to advertise the program.
- Conduct Disability etiquette training for supervisors and managers.
- Conduct mandatory training during orientation and establish training day for interns to complete mandatory on-line training.
- Plan and organize WRP intern meet and greet.
- Host WRP farewell ceremony for interns, their supervisors and co-workers.
- Develop and distribute exit survey for WRP students to determine their overall experience working at DTRA.

Pursuant to 29 C.F.R. § 1614.203(a)(3), describe the agency's use of hiring authorities that take disability into account (e.g., Schedule A) to recruit PWD and PWTD for positions in the permanent workforce.

SCHEDULE A allows DTRA to hire qualified PWDs and PWTDs non competitively using 5 CFR § 213.3102 (u). The Disability Coordinator and HR will continue to implement Schedule A based on the following.

PLAN:

- Maintain Schedule A database repository for resumes.
- Educate hiring managers and supervisors on the use and advantages of the Schedule A appointment authority for hiring.
- Serve as a resource to PWDs/PWTDs seeking information about current job opportunities.
- Create a Schedule A Information Sheet and include Frequently Asked Questions.

DISABLED VETERANS PROGRAM ensures compliance with the EO13548 for Federal agencies to hire more Veterans. DTRA is committed to seek ways to increase the hiring of Veterans, especially those who are 30% or more disabled. Approximately 24.62% of DTRAs workforce comprised of disable veterans, of which 20.37% were veterans with a disability rate of 30% or higher.

PLAN:

- Collaborate with HR and Wounded Warrior representatives to discuss effective ways to hire Veterans.
- Develop a list of outreach resources of Veterans, Vocational Rehabilitation Centers, and PWDs/PWTDs organizations.
- Build partnerships to help expand disability outreach efforts.
- Attend career fairs and other opportunities to recruit and obtain applications for veterans.
- Assist with matching Wounded Warrior candidates with DTRA job vacancies.

When individuals apply for a position under a hiring authority that takes disability into account (e.g., Schedule A), explain how the agency (1) determines if the individual is eligible for appointment under such authority and (2) forwards the individual's application to the relevant hiring officials with an explanation of how and when the individual may be appointed.

The EO office maintains a database with resumes and Schedule A certification letters obtained by the candidate in compliance with the Schedule A hiring authority. Based on the occupation being hired, EO provide resumes and Schedule A letters to HR upon request to provide to supervisors and hiring managers. During the hiring process, supervisors meet with HR (strategic conversation) to provide information on the disability program and the use of Schedule A.

Has the agency provided training to all hiring managers on the use of hiring authorities that take disability into account (e.g., Schedule A)? If “yes”, describe the type(s) of training and frequency. If “no”, describe the agency’s plan to provide this training.

Yes X No N/A

The Agency currently conducts a mandatory training – “Roadmap to Success: Hiring People with Disability”. This one hour online training is available to the workforce. In addition, HR provides awareness to all hiring managers on the use of hiring authorities that is inclusive to PWDs and PWTDs.

PLAN TO ESTABLISH CONTACTS WITH DISABILITY EMPLOYMENT ORGANIZATIONS

Describe the agency’s efforts to establish and maintain contacts with organizations that assist PWD, including PWTD, in securing and maintaining employment.

DTRA participated in the Workforce Recruitment Program (WRP) and hired four summer interns. In FY19, the Agency is scheduled to visit the Fort Belvoir Wounded Warrior Office, and Vocational Rehabilitation Centers to establish and build collaborative relationships and to promote programs for PWDs and PWTDs.

PROGRESSION TOWARDS GOALS (RECRUITMENT AND HIRING)

Using the goals of 12% for PWD and 2% for PWTD as the benchmarks, do triggers exist for PWD and/or PWTD among the new hires in the permanent workforce? If “yes”, please describe the triggers below.

Section V: Plan to Improve Retention of Persons with Disabilities

To be a model employer for persons with disabilities, agencies must have policies and programs in place to retain employees with disabilities. In this section, agencies should: (1) analyze workforce separation data to identify barriers retaining employees with disabilities; (2) describe efforts to ensure accessibility of technology and facilities; and (3) provide information on the reasonable accommodation program and workplace personal assistance services.

VOLUNTARY AND INVOLUNTARY SEPARATIONS

In this reporting period, did the agency convert all eligible Schedule A employees with a disability into the competitive service after two years of satisfactory service (5 C.F.R. § 213.3102(u)(6)(i))? If “no”, please explain why the agency did not convert all eligible Schedule A employees.

Yes No X N/A

The Agency do not consistently track the use of Schedule A Hiring Authority and conversions to permanent status after the 2-year probation status. In FY19, EO will collaborate with HR to identify a process to remind managers and supervisors when a Schedule A employee is eligible for conversion.

Using the inclusion rate as the benchmark, did the percentage of PWD among voluntary and involuntary separations exceed that of persons without disabilities? If “yes”, describe the trigger below.

- | | | |
|---------------------------------|--------------|----|
| • Voluntary Separations (PWD) | Yes X | No |
| • Involuntary Separations (PWD) | Yes X | No |

Using the inclusion rate, PWDs 8 (13.55%) who involuntarily separated from the agency, as compared to the rate of individuals without disabilities 59 (40.41%).

Using the inclusion rate as the benchmark, did the percentage of PWTD among voluntary and involuntary separations exceed that of persons without targeted disabilities? If “yes”, describe the trigger below.

- | | | |
|----------------------------------|--------------|----|
| • Voluntary Separations (PWTD) | Yes X | No |
| • Involuntary Separations (PWTD) | Yes X | No |

Using the inclusion rate, triggers does exist for PWTD (1) 0.71% who involuntarily separated from the agency, as compared with the goal of 2%.

Using the inclusion rate, triggers does not exist for PWTD (0.0%) who involuntarily separated from the agency, as compared to the rate of persons without disabilities (0) (85.00%).

If a trigger exists involving the separation rate of PWD and/or PWTD, please explain why they left the agency using exit interview results and other data sources.

We believe triggers may exist involving the separations of PWD and PWTD at DTRA, there are inconsistencies in the data. EO in collaboration with HR will work to identify and develop a plan for addressing these inconsistencies by reviewing the exit interview and results. These steps will allow us to ascertain more detailed information on triggers impacting separations among PWDs and PWTDs.

MD 715 Definitions and EEO Authorities

MD-715 Definitions and EEO Authorities

The following definitions apply to MD 715:

- Applicant: A person who applies for employment.
- Applicant Flow Data: Information reflecting characteristics of the pool of individuals applying for an employment opportunity.
- Barrier: An agency policy, principle, practice or condition that limits or tends to limit employment opportunities for members of a particular gender, race or ethnic background or for an individual (or individuals) based on disability status.
- Disability: For the purpose of statistics, recruitment, and targeted goals, the number of employees in the workforce who have indicated having a disability on an Office of Personnel Management Standard Form (SF) 256. For all other purposes, the definition contained in 29 C.F.R. § 1630.2 applies.
- Civilian Labor Force: Persons 16 years of age and over, except those in the armed forces, who are employed or are unemployed and seeking work.
- EEO Groups: Members of groups protected under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act and other Federal guidelines. Includes: White Men, White Women, Black Men, Black Women, Hispanic Men, Hispanic Women, Asian Men, Asian Women, Native American Men, Native American Women, and Persons with Disabilities.
- Employees: Members of the agency's permanent or temporary work force, whether full or part-time and whether in competitive or excepted service positions.
- Employment Decision: Any decision affecting the terms and conditions of an individual's employment, including but not limited to hiring, promotion, demotion, disciplinary action and termination.
- Feeder Group or Pool: Occupational group(s) from which selections to a particular job are typically made.
- Federal Categories (Fed9): EEOC is requiring agencies to report their workforce data by aggregating it into nine employment categories. These categories are more consistent with those EEOC uses in private sector enforcement and will permit better analysis of trends in the federal workplace than previous categories used. The Commission has created a Census/OPM Occupation Cross-Classification Table by OPM Occupational Code (crosswalk) which assists agencies in determining the category in which to place a position through use of the position's OPM or SOC codes or the OPM or Census Occupation Title. The crosswalk may be accessed at the Commission's website: <http://www.eeoc.gov/federal/715instruct/00-09opmcode.html>. This crosswalk is intended as general guidance in cross-classifying OPM occupational codes to the EEO nine categories. Agencies are encouraged to contact EEOC with specific questions about what category might be appropriate for their particular occupations.

The nine job category titles are:

- Officials and Manager - Occupations requiring administrative and managerial personnel who set broad policies, exercise overall responsibility for execution of these policies, and direct individual offices, programs, divisions or other units or special phases of an agency's operations. In the federal sector, this category is further broken out into four sub-categories: (1) Executive/Senior-Level, (2) Mid-Level, (3) First-Level and (4) Other. When an employee is classified as a supervisor or manager, that employee should be placed in the Officials and Managers category rather than in the category in the crosswalk that they would otherwise be placed in based on their OPM occupational code. Those employees classified as supervisors or managers who are at the GS-12 level or below should be placed in the First-Level sub-category of Officials and Managers, those at the GS-13 or 14 should be in the Mid-Level sub-category and those at GS-15 or in the SES should be in the Executive/Senior-Level sub-category. An agency may also choose to place employees who have significant policy-making responsibilities, but do not supervise other employees, in these three sub-categories. The fourth sub-category, called "Other" contains employees in a number of different occupations which are primarily business, financial and administrative in nature, and do not have supervisory or significant policy responsibilities. For example, Administrative Officers (OPM Code 0341) are appropriately placed in the "Other" sub-category.
- Professionals - Occupations requiring either college graduation or experience of such kind and amount as to provide a comparable background. Includes: accountants and auditors, airplane pilots and navigators, architects, artists, chemists, designers, dietitians, editors, engineers, lawyers, librarians, mathematicians, natural scientists, registered professional nurses, personnel and labor relations specialists, physical scientists, physicians, social scientists, teachers, surveyors, and kindred workers.
- Technicians - Occupations requiring a combination of basic scientific knowledge and manual skill which can be obtained through two years of post-high school education, such as is offered in many technical institutes and junior colleges, or through equivalent on-the-job training. Includes: computer programmers, drafters, engineering aides, junior engineers, mathematical aides, licensed, practical or vocational nurses, photographers, radio operators, scientific assistants, technical illustrators, technicians (medical, dental, electronic, physical science), and kindred workers.
- Sales - Occupations engaging wholly or primarily in direct selling. Includes: advertising agents and sales workers, insurance agents and brokers, real estate agents and brokers, stock and bond sales workers, demonstrators, sales workers and sales clerks, grocery clerks, and cashiers/checkers, and kindred workers.
- Administrative Support Workers - Includes all clerical-type work regardless of level of difficulty, where the activities are predominantly non-manual though some manual work not directly involved with altering or transporting the products is included. Includes: bookkeepers, collectors (bills and accounts), messengers and office helpers, office machine operators (including computer), shipping and receiving clerks, stenographers, typists and secretaries, telegraph and telephone operators, legal assistants, and kindred workers.

- Craft Workers (skilled) - Manual workers of relatively high skill level having a thorough and comprehensive knowledge of the processes involved in their work. Exercise considerable independent judgment and usually receive an extensive period of training. Includes: the building trades, hourly paid supervisors and lead operators who are not members of management, mechanics and repairers, skilled machining occupations, compositors and typesetters, electricians, engravers, painters (construction and maintenance), motion picture projectionists, pattern and model makers, stationary engineers, tailors, arts occupations, hand painters, coaters, bakers, decorating occupations, and kindred workers.
- Operatives (semi-skilled) - Workers who operate machine or processing equipment or perform other factory-type duties of intermediate skill level which can be mastered in a few weeks and require only limited training. Includes: apprentices (auto mechanics, plumbers, bricklayers, carpenters, electricians, machinists, mechanics, building trades, metalworking trades, printing trades, etc.), operatives, attendants (auto service and parking), blasters, chauffeurs, delivery workers, sewers and stitchers, dryers, furnace workers, heaters, laundry and dry cleaning operatives, milliners, mine operatives and laborers, motor operators, oilers and greasers (except auto), painters (manufactured articles), photographic process workers, truck and tractor drivers, knitting, looping, taping and weaving machine operators, welders and flame cutters, electrical and electronic equipment assemblers, butchers and meat cutters, inspectors, testers and graders, hand packers and packagers, and kindred workers.
- Laborers (unskilled) - Workers in manual occupations which generally require no special training who perform elementary duties that may be learned in a few days and require the application of little or no independent judgment. Includes: garage laborers, car washers and greasers, grounds keepers and gardeners, farm workers, stevedores, wood choppers, laborers performing lifting, digging, mixing, loading and pulling operations, and kindred workers.
- Service workers - Workers in both protective and non-protective service occupations. Includes: attendants (hospital and other institutions, professional and personal service, including nurse's aides, and orderlies), barbers, char workers and cleaners, cooks, counter and fountain workers, elevator operators, firefighters and fire protection, guards, door-keepers, stewards, janitors, police officers and detectives, porters, waiters and waitresses, amusement and recreation facilities attendants, guides, ushers, public transportation attendants, and kindred workers.

MEMORANDUM FOR DISTRIBUTION C

SUBJECT: Policy Statement on Military Equal Opportunity

It is my policy to provide all military members assigned to the Defense Threat Reduction Agency (DTRA) with fair and equitable treatment and a duty atmosphere where all can achieve success. Our team of Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen, and Marines has my strongest personal respect and commitment.

I will not tolerate discrimination, harassment, or unequal treatment based on race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. Military members have my absolute assurance that I, along with all senior leaders, managers, and supervisors, will continue to promote an environment free from personal, social, or institutional barriers that impede their ability to contribute fully to our mission and to grow personally and professionally.

DTRA military members bring a rich diversity of experience and talent that enhances our ability to achieve our critical global mission. Our military members will be managed, trained, evaluated, rewarded, promoted, and retained based solely on their ability and contributions. I value the well-earned reputation of devotion to duty by our military members and I believe their expertise and stability are critical to meeting the global challenges we face.

If incidents occur that violate this policy, I expect our military members to seek prompt resolution at the lowest level by using the chain of command. Any matter that cannot be resolved should be brought to the attention of the JOXE at (703)767-4451, DSN 427-4451, or by e-mail at dtra.belvoir.JO.mbx.eo-inbox@mail.mil.

The Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) process is also available to military members and should be considered for conflict resolution, if appropriate. Please contact JOXE for further information on ADR. Complaints will be promptly and thoroughly investigated and appropriate action will be taken, if complaints are substantiated.

MEMORANDUM FOR DISTRIBUTION C

SUBJECT: Policy Statement on Prevention of Sexual Harassment

As Director of the Defense Threat Reduction Agency (DTRA), I unequivocally confirm my commitment to a workplace free from sexual harassment. It is the duty of every civilian employee and military member of DTRA to provide and maintain an environment of trust and respect for all employees. Sexual harassment has no place in the workplace. Such harassment adversely affects our mission and productivity and will not be tolerated.

Sexual harassment is prohibited and violates Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended; and Section 2302 of Title 5, United States Code. Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature. Such conduct constitutes sexual harassment when this conduct explicitly or implicitly affects an individual's employment, unreasonably interferes with an individual's work performance, or creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment.

Everyone has a role and a responsibility in the prevention or elimination of sexual harassment by (1) examining his or her behavior on the job, (2) supporting this policy, and (3) notifying his/her supervisor or higher-level manager when there is a concern or incident. Managers and supervisors are accountable for enforcing standards of appropriate behavior.

Managers and/or supervisors must immediately report all instances of sexual harassment witnessed or brought to the manager/supervisor's attention immediately to our Equal Opportunity and Diversity Programs Office (J0XE) at (703)767-4451, dtra.belvoir.J0.mbx.eo-inbox@mail.mil or our Inspector's General Office (J0XI) at (703)767-5849. Managers and/or supervisors must not initiate any type of internal investigation related to alleged sexual harassment because it is of paramount importance that proper procedures for dealing with allegations of sexual harassment be appropriately addressed to ensure that individual rights are not violated.

I will not tolerate sexual harassment in the workplace. I expect swift actions to ensure that all claims of sexual harassment are thoroughly investigated. Violations will result in appropriate action against the offender(s) up to and including dismissal from federal service for civilian employees and action under the Uniform Code of Military Justice for military members. Management officials who fail to carry out their duty and responsibility under this policy may face disciplinary action.

MEMORANDUM FOR DISTRIBUTION C

SUBJECT: Policy Statement on Sexual Assault Prevention and Response

I am committed to the prevention of sexual assault throughout the Defense Threat Reduction Agency (DTRA). I expect all employees, both military and civilian, to model appropriate behaviors in the workplace and to advance a culture of respect and dignity.

Sexual assault is a crime defined as intentional sexual contact, characterized by use of force, physical threat, or abuse of authority, or when the victim does not or cannot consent. Sexual assault includes rape, non-consensual sodomy, unwanted inappropriate sexual contact or fondling, as well as attempts to commit these acts.

My goal is to ensure that we have a climate free of sexual assault incidents. Such incidents violate professional and personal dignity while eroding readiness and team unity. Sexual assault intrudes upon the sacred trust of those who serve, and can endanger members of our Armed Forces or the civilian workforce. Any form of sexual assault will not be tolerated.

I expect senior leaders, supervisors, and managers to understand their role and responsibility with respect to sexual assault victims. As an organization, we must create a climate where victims are encouraged to report incidents of sexual assault without fear. Critical to this, we have established a Sexual Assault Prevention Training and Awareness Program to educate our workforce and reaffirm our obligation to protect our service members and their families.

Sexual assault has no place in the DTRA workplace. Sexual assault is incompatible with our values and is punishable under the Uniform Code of Military Justice and other Federal and local laws. Any individual (victim or bystander) who is aware of a sexual assault must immediately report it to our Sexual Assault Response Coordinator, Mr. Phillip Ellis, J0XE at (703)767-4451/7769.

MEMORANDUM FOR DISTRIBUTION C

SUBJECT: Policy Statement on Diversity and Inclusion

The Defense Threat Reduction Agency (DTRA) is committed to our employees, our Nation, and those we serve. The men and women, both civilian and military, who comprise our workforce, reflect a broad range of viewpoints, ideas, and backgrounds. Diversity mirrors our culture, values, and goals. Diversity encompasses race – and so much more – by celebrating and valuing the unique attributes, characteristics, and perspectives that makes each person who they are. DTRA's strength lies in our diversity and serves as the driving force behind our organization's excellence and mission success.

It is critical to seek out diversity of participation and to integrate the talent, background, and capabilities of our team. This creates and maintains an environment where diverse ideas are embraced as critical to accomplishing our mission. Continued success requires the full and active participation of each one of our talented and committed employees.

Employees who believe they have been discriminated against have the right to file an Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) complaint with the Equal Opportunity and Diversity Programs Office (J0XE) by contacting them at (703)767-4451 or dtra.belvoir.J0.mbx.eo-inbox@mail.mil without fear of reprisal or retaliation based on previous participation in the EEO process.

I applaud our efforts in creating a positive work environment that challenges our employees to make the world safer from weapons of mass destruction and improvised threats. We are creating and sustaining an organizational climate in which people of diverse backgrounds, cultures, races, gender, religions, ethnicities, ages, and experiences are fully included, valued, and respected.

All leaders must continue to foster an environment where our employees have the opportunity to contribute, prosper, and advance in their careers. By fostering an atmosphere of diversity and inclusion, we will value and appreciate the strengths afforded by the differences in styles, ideas, and organizational contributions of each employee. Each of you is encouraged to continue your efforts toward a work environment where all employees have the opportunity to reach their full potential and maximize their contributions.

MEMORANDUM FOR DISTRIBUTION C

SUBJECT: Policy Statement on Employment and Advancement of Individuals with Disabilities

As Director of the Defense Threat Reduction Agency (DTRA), I encourage all of you to help make our organization a model employer of individuals with disabilities (IwD), particularly those with targeted disabilities. I welcome your continued support as we strive to achieve the Department of Defense (DoD) hiring goal of two percent (2.0%) for individuals with targeted disabilities.

To ensure continued compliance with the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, I ask that you work together to identify, report, and eliminate barriers and ensure full compliance with Section 501 which prohibits discrimination in employment against qualified IwD by Federal agencies of the Executive Branch. I also ask that you ensure full compliance with Section 504 which prohibits any qualified individual with a disability from being excluded from, denied the benefits of, or subjected to discrimination under any program or activity that is conducted by or receives Federal financial assistance. Requirements under Section 504 include Reasonable Accommodation for employees with disabilities, program access, effective communication for those with hearing or vision disabilities, and accessible new construction and building alterations. DTRA will also comply with Section 508 which requires Federal electronic and information technology to be accessible to IwD, including employees and the public.

We will continue to identify and remove any barriers to hiring, retaining, and promoting IwD. Managers and supervisors should work closely with the Equal Opportunity and Diversity Programs Office (J0XE) to address impediments to hiring, retaining, and promoting IwD. Our ongoing Individuals with Targeted Disabilities Working Group will be a tremendous asset towards building a more diverse workforce.

In accordance with Executive Order 13548, Joint Improvised-Threat Defeat Organization (JIDO) Director (JD), Joint Directors, and Staff Office Chiefs will collaborate with the Human Resources Directorate (J1) and J0XE to increase opportunities for IwD through the use of the Schedule A Hiring Authority; veterans' programs, such as Wounded Warrior; the Workforce Recruitment Program; and other Federal, DoD, and special military programs. These efforts will help us reach IwD who seek employment with DTRA.

For information on the Reasonable Accommodation (RA) process or to obtain the RA Request Form (DTRA Form 123), please contact the Agency RA Coordinator in J1 at (703)767-0166.

MEMORANDUM FOR DISTRIBUTION C

SUBJECT: Policy Statement on Harassment in the Workplace

I will ensure the Defense Threat Reduction Agency (DTRA) continues to maintain an environment that is free of workplace harassment. It is vital that all personnel uphold a culture that fosters high professional standards and integrity. Harassment adversely affects mission, morale, and productivity; therefore, we must ensure that all DTRA employees are valued and treated with dignity and respect.

Harassment comes in many forms. It can be unwelcome conduct exhibited toward someone based upon that person's race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy and gender identity), national origin, age (40 years and older), disability (physical or mental), genetic information, and reprisal for participating in prior equal employment opportunity activities. Harassment becomes unlawful when (1) enduring the offensive conduct becomes a condition of continued employment, or (2) the conduct is severe and pervasive enough to create a work environment that a reasonable person would consider intimidating, hostile, or abusive.

Harassment also includes inappropriate comments posted on social media, including internet sites and may include jokes, slurs, inappropriate printed materials, verbal or non-verbal conduct, bullying, as well as aggressive and unreasonable behavior between supervisor and employee or between co-workers. Employees who witness or are subjected to harassment of this nature should make it clear to the offending party that such behavior is unwelcome. However, an employee's failure to warn the offending party in no way justifies nor condones the harassing conduct. Harassment should be reported immediately to the Equal Opportunity and Diversity Program Office (J0XE) at (703)767-4451, dtra.belvoir.J0.mbx.co-inbox@mail.mil or to the Inspector's General Office (J0XI) at (703)767-5849.

Managers and supervisors have the primary duty to act promptly to prevent and to eliminate all types of harassment. Failure to do so is unacceptable. Behavior that is inconsistent with this policy will be promptly and impartially investigated. Immediate, appropriate, and effective corrective action will be taken in cases where severe and pervasive conduct is substantiated. Retaliating or discriminating against an employee for reporting, filing a complaint, or cooperating with an investigation of allegations of harassment is prohibited and will result in appropriate administrative or disciplinary action. Harassment is unacceptable behavior and is a violation of Federal discrimination laws, regulations, and policies.

If you are a civilian employee and believe that you have been discriminated against based on race, color, religion, sex, age (over 40) national origin, disability, genetic information or reprisal for prior Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) involvement, you may contact your supervisor/manager in your chain of command or the Equal Opportunity counselor in J0XE or J0XI. I assure that the confidentiality of your claim of harassment or discrimination will be protected to the fullest extent possible. Any allegations of discrimination must be brought to the attention of JOXE within 45 calendar days of the occurrence. If you wish to report harassment, want to file an EEO complaint, request Alternate Dispute Resolution, please contact JOXE at (703)767-4451.

MEMORANDUM FOR DISTRIBUTION C

SUBJECT: Policy Statement on Civilian Equal Employment Opportunity

The Defense Threat Reduction Agency (DTRA) supports and promotes the principles of equal employment opportunity (EEO) in the workplace for all persons and prohibits discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy and gender identity), national origin, disability (physical or mental), age (40 years and older), and genetic information. Preventing unlawful discrimination in employment policies, procedures, practices, and operations is a priority.

Federal laws, Presidential Executive Orders, and other laws are designed to proactively prevent discrimination. It is vital that personnel management decisions by senior leaders, managers, and supervisors are made to ensure that employees and applicants are treated fairly and with respect. I place significant importance on our stated values - Integrity, Service, Excellence, Innovation, and Teamwork.

Employees who believe they have been discriminated against have the right to file an EEO complaint with the Equal Opportunity and Diversity Programs Office (J0XE) by contacting them at (703)767-4451 or dtra.belvoir.J0.mbx.co-inbox@mail.mil without fear of reprisal or retaliation based on previous participation in the EEO process.

Senior leaders, managers, and supervisors are expected to take an active role in ensuring a workplace free of discrimination. It is our responsibility to ensure that all employees are afforded a fair and competitive employment process under merit system principles. Each individual is expected to abide by the letter, intent, and spirit of EEO laws and policies. I am also committed to maintaining a workplace free of harassment. I expect leaders at all levels to continually monitor their work area and to take swift and appropriate disciplinary action against individuals who engage in inappropriate behavior or conduct.

This policy statement reaffirms the principles of EEO and assures that EEO program requirements will be enforced.

INTRODUCTION

The Defense Threat Reduction Agency (DTRA) Reasonable Accommodation (RA) program is designed to remove any barrier(s) which prevent individuals with disabilities (permanent or temporary) who are employees or applicants from applying for or performing jobs for which they are qualified. Equally important is to empower individuals with disabilities to maximize employment, economic self-sufficiency, and inclusion into society. This guide provides procedures for participation in the DTRA RA program.

The information in this guide applies to all civilian employees and applicants seeking employment within DTRA and takes precedence over all related internal standard operating procedures or guidance.

DISCUSSION

Program Coverage

The DTRA RA program provides modification(s) to the work environment that allows an employee to perform the essential functions of his or her position and/or to enjoy equal access to benefits and privileges of employment. The DTRA RA program also provides for modification to the application process allowing qualified individuals with a disability to apply for positions without barriers.

The DTRA RA program complies with United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) regulations and federal law prohibiting federal agencies from discriminating against qualified individuals with disabilities. A qualified individual with a disability refers to an individual who satisfies the requisite skill, experience, education and other job-related requirements of the employment position such individual holds or desires; and who, with or without reasonable accommodation, can perform the essential functions of such position. Effective January 3, 2018, the EEOC amended Section 501 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, requiring all federal agencies, to include DTRA, to offer Personal Assistance Services (PAS) to assist with daily living activities (i.e., putting on clothing, eating, using the restroom) for employees with “targeted disabilities” (i.e., blindness, deafness, spinal cord injury, etc.).

Eligibility

Eligibility to participate in the DTRA RA program is limited to permanent full-time and part-time Federal civilian employees or civilian applicants seeking employment within DTRA.

Military members assigned to DTRA seeking a RA must follow his/her Service specific rules for making such a request.

Contractor personnel are not eligible to participate in DTRA’s RA program. Contractors should contact his/her employer if he/she feels a RA is needed.

Reporting

The Director, Human Resources Directorate (HR), has overall responsibility for DTRA guidance and reporting requirements related to the RA program. HR will compile and maintain RA data to evaluate the Agency’s performance in responding to requests for RA, ensure compliance with EEOC regulations and federal laws, and submit report(s) to the EEOC, as appropriate.

PROCEDURES

Designation of RA coordinator

The Director, HR designates a RA coordinator to serve as the program lead. The RA coordinator is responsible for reviewing all RA requests for employees and applicants; ensuring completeness of RA requests; determining whether an employee or applicant meets the definition of a qualified individual with a disability; consulting with Directorates and Staff Offices as necessary; and, providing guidance to all parties.

Requesting RA

The RA process begins when employees or applicants with a disability request an adjustment or modification to the work environment or application process that will enable the employee or applicant to perform the essential functions of their position, to complete the application process, and/or to enjoy equal access to benefits and privileges of employment (e.g., Agency sponsored events, training).

A request for a RA may be made orally or in writing by an employee or applicant, or the employee or applicant's family member, health care professional or authorized representative. The individual making the request need only indicate the need for assistance based on a medical condition. The use of special words is not required (e.g., "accommodation," "disability," or "rehabilitation").

When a request is made by someone other than an employee or applicant, the RA coordinator will confirm the request with the employee or applicant. In the event a third party acts as a representative for the affected individual, the third party must have written designation authorizing him or her to work on the requestor's behalf.

Types of RA may include, but are not limited to:

- Ensuring facilities used by employees and applicants for employment are readily accessible and usable by individuals with disabilities;
- Restructuring jobs and/or modifying work schedules;
- Reassigning current employees to vacant positions;
- Acquiring or modifying equipment or devices;
- Making appropriate modifications to examinations, training materials, or policies; or
- Providing qualified readers or interpreters and/or other similar assistance.

Processing the RA Request for Employees

A RA request may be submitted in writing or orally to an employee's supervisor, another supervisor in the employee's chain of command, or to the RA coordinator. The initial RA request may be made verbally; however, the RA request must be later documented using DTRA Form 123 found in the DTRA/ Forms Library SharePoint site:

<https://dtra1/j6/RFM/DTRA%20Forms%20Libraary/Forms/Forms%20By%20Number.aspx>

When a RA request requires review or consultation, the supervisor will ensure the RA request is forwarded to the RA coordinator within 7 calendar days of receipt.

If an employee's need for RA is not obvious or otherwise known, the employee may be asked to provide supporting medical documentation. The supervisor will identify the essential functions of the employee's position. The supporting medical documentation will determine what the employee can or cannot perform because of the disability. Medical documentation in support of a RA request must come from an appropriate healthcare professional and must include sufficient information regarding the employee's medical condition(s) and the functional limitation(s). The RA should explain:

- The past, present and expected future nature, severity, and duration of the employee's impairment (e.g. functional limitation, symptoms, side effects of any treatments).
- The on-the-job activity or activities that the impairment limits, and the extent to which the impairment limits the employee's ability to perform the activity or activities.
- The medical basis for any opinion that the employee requires a RA and how the RA will assist the employee in the performance of the essential functions of the position.
- Specific limitations associated with each major life activity (i.e., performing manual tasks, walking, standing, reaching, sitting, lifting, etc.).
- If teleworking addresses the medical condition sufficiently for the employee to continue performing the essential functions of the position, the RA must define the parameters of telework. (Note: If the RA request involves "full-time telework," then the employee must complete an additional coordination, requiring approval of the Director, HR, per DTRA Instruction 1100.2).
- How the RA will assist in the performance of the essential functions of the position or to enjoy equal access to benefits and privileges of employment (e.g., Agency sponsored events, training).

Failure on the part of the employee, or the employee's designee, to cooperate in this process or provide sufficient documentation on whether he or she has a disability can result in a denial of RA.

Generally, an employee who has already been determined eligible for a RA will not be required to submit a separate written request for each subsequent occasion in which they will need the same or similar RA. If the RA is needed on a recurring basis, the supervisor will ensure arrangements are made without requiring a request in advance of each occasion. A supervisor and RA coordinator may reevaluate a RA based on non-permanent conditions and make modifications per the medical documentation, as necessary.

If an employee needs PAS, the employee will describe the kind of assistance needed to perform activities of daily living for their “targeted disability” and will refer to “Making a Request for PAS” section of this Handbook for procedural guidance.

Processing the RA Request for Applicants Seeking Employment

Applicants seeking employment within DTRA may direct their RA request to the RA coordinator, designee, or to the individual contacting the applicant for an interview.

RA requests should include the applicant’s name, name of the hiring organization, a description of the RA being requested, and a brief description of the reason for the RA request which may be documented on the DTRA Form 123.

Engaging in the Interactive Process

An employee is not entitled to the exact RA he/she requests. The RA must allow the requesting employee to perform the essential function of his/her position that the employee is no longer able to perform. Therefore, once the RA request is made by the employee or applicant, he or she will work with the supervisor or hiring manager to identify potential RAs and explore the various options. The supervisor will engage the RA coordinator once the documentation (i.e., supporting medical documentation, DTRA Form 123, DTRA Form 259, Request for RA, description of RA for applicants, etc.) is gathered.

The requester, RA coordinator, supervisor or hiring manager will collaborate throughout the process. Failure on the part of the requester to cooperate in the interactive process can result in a denial of the RA request. Failure on the part of supervisor to participate in the interactive process may potentially result in Agency liability.

The RA coordinator advises the supervisor and/or hiring manager; however, the supervisor makes the final decision on the RA for an employee and the hiring manager provides written communication to the applicant on his/her RA decision. Depending on the nature of the RA request, the RA coordinator, will consult with the Office of the General Counsel, DTRA’s Senior Medical Officer, and/or other Directorates and Staff Offices, as needed, to execute RAs. The RA coordinator will collaborate with the supervisor or hiring manager to promptly, effectively, and reasonably to accommodate a qualified employee with a disability. In extenuating circumstances, clearly visible or known disabilities will be evaluated expeditiously and given priority.

Reasonable Accommodation Review Board

The employee who is denied an RA, or is not given the RA he/she requests, may choose to appeal the decision to the Reasonable Accommodation Review Board (RARB).

Since each RA is unique and often requires guidance from various Directorates and Staff Offices, RARB members include, but is not limited to:

- Chief, Management and Employee Relations Division;
- RA Coordinator;
- Senior Medical Officer; and
- The Office of the General Counsel.

The Chief, Management and Employee Relations Division serves as the RARB chair and will determine if ad hoc membership is required.

Requesting and Safeguarding Medical Information

The RA coordinator may request additional medical information if the medical documentation does not clearly explain the nature of the disability, the need for RA, or how the RA will assist the employee in performing the essential functions of the job, enjoying the privileges of the workplace, or assisting an applicant with the application process. The RA coordinator may ask the employee, or employee's designee, to provide medical documentation in support of a RA.

If the RA coordinator needs additional medical information in order to process a RA request, the RA coordinator must provide the employee or applicant with a written explanation of why the submitted medical documentation is insufficient and a description of what is needed.

At a minimum, acceptable medical documentation must establish the nature of the medical condition, the limitations the medical condition imposes, and the causal connection between the medical condition and the inability to meet workplace expectations.

When additional medical documentation is needed, the RA coordinator can allow the individual an opportunity to provide the information from their personal healthcare professional. The RA coordinator may ask the individual to sign a limited release and then either submit a list of specific questions to the individual's health care professional or have DTRA's Senior Medical Officer contact the individual's healthcare professional. If this does not result in sufficient information, the Agency may require the individual to submit to an independent medical examination by a healthcare professional of the Agency's choice and at the Agency's expense.

Individuals should respond to requests for medical documentation within 15 calendar days after receipt of the RA request. An additional 15 calendar days may be granted for extenuating circumstances.

All medical information obtained in connection with the RA process must be kept confidential, must not be shared with others unless on a need-to-know basis, and must be appropriately protected from unlawful disclosure. Any employee who obtains or receives such information is strictly bound by these confidentiality requirements. Restrictions apply to information and documents. The only circumstances under which medical information may be disclosed are:

- Providing identification of an employee's functional limitations and what RAs have been approved to those who have a need-to-know;
- Providing pertinent information to first aid and emergency personnel if the impaired individual requires emergency treatment; or
- Providing investigative services to ensure DTRA is in compliance with EEOC regulations.

Medical information or documentation of an employee's impairment, disability, or RA, must be kept in a separate file from normal personnel records and be properly secured when not in use by the authorized parties. Records pertaining to RA requests are maintained for a period of 3 years. If the RA is needed on a recurring basis, then the RA records will be maintained for as long as the case is active.

Timeframes for Processing RA Requests

Responses to RA requests for information will be provided by the RA coordinator, as soon as possible, absent extenuating circumstances, not later than 15 calendar days after receipt. Absent extenuating circumstances, requests for RA will be processed and a decision on the request will be provided within 30 calendar days of receiving all requested information. If there is a delay in issuing a written determination, the individual requesting RA must be issued written notification of the reasons for the delay.

If a request for a RA can be processed without supporting medical information, and there are no other extenuating circumstances, determinations will be made within 30 calendar days from the date the request is received. When extenuating circumstances are present, such as failure to provide requested medical information or the information specified, or where independent medical review is necessary, the time for processing a RA request will be extended as reasonably necessary. If the delay exceeds 45 calendar days from the date of the employee's initial request, he or she will be notified in writing. Unnecessary delays may result in Agency liability and can also result in a violation of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

If the RA cannot be provided immediately, the supervisor, in coordination with the RA coordinator, should inform the requester in writing of the projected timeframe for providing the RA. Temporary measures must be explored when there may be a delay in processing a request or implementing a RA. If a temporary accommodation is provided, the employee must be informed the accommodation is being provided only on a temporary, interim basis.

In special circumstances expedited processing of a RA request may be required. Examples include when the RA is needed to enable an individual to apply for a job, to participate in a specific activity that is scheduled to occur on a specified date, or in cases involving safety issues.

Reassignment

Reassignment to a vacant position is a potential RA. In general, reassignment should be considered as a “last resort,” only when RA within the individual's current position is not possible, or would pose an undue hardship to the Agency. Reassignment is not available to applicants. In accordance with EEOC regulatory guidance, reassignment will be considered for an employee when:

- The employee, because of a disability, can no longer perform the essential functions of the position he or she holds, with or without RA.
- There is no available RA that would enable the employee to perform the essential functions of the position or if the only effective accommodation would cause undue hardship to the Agency.
- There is a vacant position for which the employee is qualified. The vacant position must be equivalent to the employee’s current position in terms of pay, grade, benefits, geographical location, etc., unless the employee consents to being placed in a lower graded position and/or placed in a different geographical location.

Vacant Position Searches

Searches for vacant positions will be handled by the RA coordinator in coordination with the HR Services Division. The search will include positions that are anticipated to be vacant within 60 calendar days of the initial request for a RA. This search does not obligate DTRA to wait 60 calendar days to take appropriate action, only to consider vacancies that have been forecasted within 60 calendar days.

Decision to Grant a RA Request

When it is determined that a RA will be provided, the decision will be communicated in writing to the requesting individual and his or her authorized representative if one has been identified. If the supervisor grants a RA that was not agreed upon during the interactive process, the notice should explain the reason(s) for the denial of the requested RA and the reason(s) that he or she believes the chosen RA is more effective.

A supervisor is not required to provide the precise RA requested so long as the alternative accommodation is effective and does not create an undue hardship to the Agency, per EEOC regulations.

The RA coordinator will follow up with the employee or applicant to ensure the effectiveness of the RA.

Decision to Deny a RA Request

When the supervisor, in coordination with the RARB, determines that a RA request will be denied, this will be communicated in writing to the requesting individual, and his or her authorized representative. The explanation for the denial will be written clearly stating the specific reason(s) for the denial. All denial notices will be coordinated with the RARB and sent to the requesting individual by the RA coordinator.

The reason(s) for the denial of a RA request may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- The requested accommodation would not be effective and an effective alternate RA was not identified.
- The requested accommodation would result in undue hardship and an effective alternate RA was not identified.
- The submitted medical documentation does not establish that the individual has a disability or needs a RA.
- The requested accommodation would require the removal of an essential function and an effective alternate RA was not identified.
- The requested accommodation would require the lowering of a performance or production standard and an effective alternate RA was not identified.
- The employee is successfully completing all the essential elements of his/her position and is therefore not a “qualified” individual with a disability.

The supervisor, in coordination with the RA coordinator, will provide a written notice of denial to inform the individual of his or her right to file an appeal. The individual may file an appeal with the RARB. If the individual believes the Americans with Disabilities Act was violated, he/she may file a complaint with DTRA’ Equal Opportunity and Diversity Programs Office.

Tracking and Reporting Requirements

The RA coordinator will gather, track, and report:

- The number and types of RAs that have been requested, and whether those requests have been granted or denied.
- The jobs, to include occupational series, grade level, position titles, etc., for which RAs have been requested.
- The reasons for denial of requests for RA.

- The amount of time taken to process each RA request.
- The sources of technical assistance that have been consulted in trying to identify possible RAs.

Making a Request for Personal Assistance Services (PAS)

An employee may request a PAS by informing a supervisor, the RA coordinator, or other suitable representative that he or she needs assistance with daily life activities because of a medical condition. The employee does not need to mention Section 501 or EEOC regulations explicitly, or use terms such as “PAS” or “affirmative action” to trigger DTRA’s obligation to consider the request.

The RA coordinator will work with the employee to define PAS parameters to include:

- The employee’s targeted disability which makes him or her eligible for PAS.
- The type(s) of PAS (i.e., assistance with removing and putting on clothing, eating, using the restroom, pushing a wheelchair, etc.) required because of his or her targeted disability as defined by the treating health care provider.
- The extent to which PAS is needed for job-related travel, if applicable, but not including the commute to and from work, which is not covered under EEOC regulations.
- The extent to which PAS is needed for teleworking, if applicable.
- The extent to which PAS is needed for employer-sponsored trainings and events.
- The extent to which a RA is needed to supplement the PAS, if applicable.
- The employee’s preference to a specific PAS provider, if applicable.

Denying a Request for PAS

DTRA is only required to provide PAS if the requesting employee is entitled under the EEOC’s affirmative action ruling. Therefore, DTRA will deny a request for PAS if:

- The requestor is not a DTRA employee;
- The requestor does not have a targeted disability;
- The targeted disability does not create a need for PAS;

- The requestor is not able to perform the essential functions of the job, even with PAS and any RAs;
- The requestor would create a direct threat to safety on the job, even with PAS and any RAs; or
- Providing PAS would impose undue hardship on DTRA.

Confidentiality Requirements for PAS

All medical information obtained in connection with PAS requests must be kept confidential and appropriately protected from unlawful disclosure. PAS requests must be kept confidential and must not be shared with others unless on a need-to-know basis. Any employee who obtains or receives such information is strictly bound by these confidentiality requirements per EEOC regulation and federal laws. The RA coordinator must maintain records for a period of 3 years. If the RA is needed on a recurring basis, then the RA records will be maintained for as long as the case is active.

Reporting Requirements for PAS

HR will compile and maintain PAS data to evaluate the Agency's performance in responding to requests for PAS, ensure compliance with EEOC regulations and federal laws, and submit report(s) to the EEOC, as appropriate.

DEFINITIONS

Disability. Per ADA Amendments Act of 2008, the basic definition of "disability" is an impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities, a record of such an impairment, or being regarded as having such an impairment.

Essential Functions. The essential functions of a job are those job duties that are so fundamental to the position that the individual cannot do the job without being able to perform them. A function can be "essential" if, among other things: (a) the position exists specifically to perform that function, (b) there are a limited number of other employees who could perform the function if it were assigned to them or (c) the function is specialized and the incumbent is hired based on his/her ability to perform it.

Individual with a Disability. An individual with a disability is a person who (a) has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more of major life activities; (b) has a record of such impairment, or (c) is regarded as having such impairment.

Personal Assistant Services (PAS). PAS means assistance with performing activities of daily living that an individual would typically perform if he or she did not have a disability, and that is not otherwise required as a reasonable accommodation.

Qualified Individual with a Disability. A qualified individual with a disability is a person who (a) satisfies the requisite skill, experience, education, and other job-related requirements of the position such individual holds or desires and (b) can perform the essential functions of the position, with or without reasonable accommodation.

Reasonable Accommodation (RA). RA is a modification or adjustment to a position, the work environment, or the application process that enables a qualified individual with a disability to attain the same level of performance of the essential duties of the job or to enjoy equal benefits and privileges of employment as are available to a similarly situated employee without a disability.

Reassignment. Reassignment is a form of RA that, absent undue hardship, is provided to employees (not applicants) who, because of a disability, can no longer perform the essential functions of the job, with or without RA. Reassignments are made only to vacant positions and for employees who are qualified for the new position, when no other RA exists.

Targeted Disabilities. Targeted disabilities are a subset of conditions that would be considered disabilities under the Rehabilitation Act. Qualified individuals with certain disabilities (e.g., paralysis due to spinal cord injury, blindness, missing limbs) face significant barriers to employment, which for some people may include lack of access to PAS in the workplace, that are above and beyond the barriers faced by people with the broader range of disabilities.

Undue Hardship. Undue hardship generally refers to a specific accommodation that requires the DTRA to incur significant difficulty or expense. Determinations are made on a case-by-case basis, considering the nature and cost of the accommodation needed and the impact of the accommodation on the operations of the DTRA.

Charter
Problem Statement	Based upon the FY 2015 Status Report and FY 2015 Management Directive 715 (JID-715) data, the Agency's total workforce participation rate for IwTD was 0.23%, which is below the FY 2014 Federal High of 2.23%. This significant disparity will be addressed by the Working Group.
Business Case	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Agency population should be reflective of the Civilian Labor Force (CLF). Identify possible new approaches for recruitment, career development, and return to work programs. Increase participation of IwTD in training and career development activities, mentoring programs, and Schedule A Hires within the Agency. Increase retention of IwTD in the workforce.
Goal Statement	To advise the Director on strategies and corrective solutions for the low participation rate of IwTD within the Agency.
Unit	Qualified IwTD Employee
Defect	Qualified IwTD Employee not hired by the Agency
Customer Specifications	Derive greater value from easily accessible data sources and information to support better decision making throughout the Organization.
Measure Start	23% (FY15 MD-715)
Measure Stop	2.67% (2010 CLF) DoD 2.8%
Scope	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The IwTD WG will research, collect and analyze data, conduct root cause analysis, and identify barriers. The expected results of the working group will be to provide a report of recommendations for implementation. Identify the possible cause(s) for the low participation rates of IwTD throughout the Agency, and determine whether potential barriers exist.
